

Lori Hudson Flanery (2009)

Lori Hudson Flanery currently serves as deputy secretary of the Finance & Administration Cabinet for the Commonwealth of Kentucky where she oversees the Offices of: the Controller; Financial Management; Technology; and Procurement, as well as the Department of Revenue. She represents the secretary on the State Property and Building Commission, the Kentucky Economic Development Finance Authority, the Kentucky Student Loan Corporation/Education Authority and Kentucky Housing Corporation. She is a member of the Affordable Housing Trust Fund committee, the Kentucky YMCA and the Recovery Kentucky Task Force and has been very involved in the Governor's Clean Energy Corps.

Flanery's former posts include deputy CEO and general counsel for Kentucky Housing Corporation, commissioner of financial incentives for the Cabinet for Economic Development and bond counsel with Peck, Shaffer & Williams LLP. She carries a J.D. (1990) and B.A. (1987, with honors) from the University of Kentucky and resides with her family in Louisville.